- Unique detached bungalow
- Excellent transport links
- Allocated parking
- Walking distance to the High Street
- Overlooking the Longford River
- High regarded schools close by

A rarely available, two double-bedroom detached bungalow backing onto the Longford River. Tucked away from the hustle and bustle this quirky home is secluded but still within easy reach of Hampton Hills local amenities and parks. The property is neutrally decorated throughout, a modern bathroom with a separate shower and bath and offers spacious living all over one floor. Benefiting from wooden floor throughout, spacious reception room with doors leading out to the private rear garden.

The property benefits from allocated parking and is offered to the market with no onward chain.

Uxbridge Road is within easy access to Fulwell Station with direct services to London Waterloo and the high street with a variety of shops and restaurants. Some popular schools are nearby including Hampton Hill Junior School & Carisle Infant School. Hampton open air swimming pool, Hampton village, plus the open green spaces of Holly Road Recreation Park and Royal Bushy Park are all close by. With easy access to the M3/M25 motorways and Heathrow Airport
