Description

Situated in a highly desirable area, this period, family home combining traditional and modern features is close to both Twickenham & Strawberry Hill amenities and some excellent schools.

With well-proportioned living spaces and a neutral décor throughout, the ground floor has an elegant double reception room with a feature fireplace, a well-designed kitchen/diner with plenty of preparation areas and space for a large table for dining and skylights, maximising the light, plus a guest WC. Upstairs provides three double bedrooms and a smart family bathroom, with a further luxurious suite with a walk-in wardrobe, en-suite shower room, 'Juliet' balcony and eaves storage on the top floor.

The rear garden provides the perfect spot for 'al-fresco' dining and relaxing with a patio area, 'ever-green' grass, mature trees and shrubs and rear access.

Very well presented with some notable features including, high coved ceilings, feature fireplaces, double-glazed sash windows and plenty of storage options throughout.

Ideally located to take advantage of all that Strawberry Hill and Twickenham have to offer, from the delightful Radnor Gardens on the river to the ambient restaurants and charming riverside pubs and walks. Situated within easy access of both Richmond and Kingston with more comprehensive amenities. Commuter links are excellent with two stations providing direct services to London Waterloo, frequent bus routes and easy access to the M3/M25 motorways and Heathrow Airport. The surrounding area is well suited for family life with numerous recreational facilities, fabulous golf courses, riding stables and sports amenities. Strawberry Hill House, host to the annual Strawberry Hill Music Festival, is internationally renowned as Britain's finest example of Georgian Gothic Revival architecture. Some excellent schools including St Richard Reynolds, Waldegrave School and Twickenham Primary Academy, rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted are all close by.
