Description

This extended semi-detached house in the popular 'Rivermeads' development is close to leisure facilities, the riverside and open parkland.

With well-proportioned living spaces over three floors including a living/dining room and kitchen/breakfast room on the ground floor, two double bedrooms, a single bedroom and bathroom on the first floor and a further two bedrooms and a shower room on the top floor.

The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, providing plenty of room for a growing family and has a large outbuilding plus side and rear gated access.

With a neutral décor, a modern fitted kitchen, wood flooring, double glazing and plenty of storage options throughout.

Beech Way is a popular cul-de-sac located close to David Lloyd health club, spa, and golf course and the open spaces of Crane Park and the River Crane. There is an excellent choice of primary and secondary schools in the area including Waldegrave School and Bishop Perrin Church of England Primary School. Two stations are within 1 mile and frequent bus links to and from Twickenham and Richmond town centres are close by. For commuters, the A316/M3/M25 and Heathrow Airport are all easily accessible.

To arrange an appointment to view, please call the vendors' Sole agent Chase Buchanan.
