Description

Situated in an attractive row of period properties, this charming cottage is close to Twickenham Green and some excellent schools.

The ground floor has a living room, dining room and a fitted kitchen, the first floor has a double bedroom, a shower room and a versatile area that could be used as a study space and the top floor has a good size double bedroom with eaves storage. A small patio garden is to the rear with side access. (To note: a lift has been installed between the living room and bedroom.)

Norcutt Road is a desirable cul-de-sac close to Twickenham Green with its eclectic array of shops and restaurants and some outstanding local schools including Waldegrave School, St Richard Reynolds School and Twickenham Primary Academy, rated 'Outstanding' by Ofsted. Central Twickenham provides further amenities, including parks and riverside walks and regular direct trains into London Waterloo, whilst nearby Richmond and Kingston provide more comprehensive amenities. With easy access to the M3/M25 motorways, Heathrow Airport and sports/leisure facilities.

Available chain free, to arrange an appointment to view, please call the vendors' sole agent Chase Buchanan.
