Description

Situated on the St Margarets/Isleworth borders in a popular cul de sac, this three bedroom Victorian family home is offered to the market boasting significant scope for further extension (STP).

The residence does require some modernisation throughout and currently comprises a through reception room, with the rear dining area being open to the kitchen. The first floor boasts three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally the property benefits from a lovely rear garden and external WC and utility room.

The property is being sold with no onward chain and vacant possession.

Percy Road is ideally located within yards of Old Isleworth Village and the River Thames, there are great local schools nearby as well as being walking distance to St Margarets and Richmond via the tow path.
