Our Vendor Loves...

"A vibrant family home of over 70 years which has seen a lot of warm, happy memories over three family generations. Victorian features give this property a sense of regality, but doesn't detract from the benefits that modernised areas, such as two recently fitted bathrooms can bring. This home reels in space and amenities with no shortage of opportunity to see a growing family flourish. Double reception rooms allow flexibility to spend cosy nights in or open the connecting doors and welcome friends and family for a celebration. Whatever the weather, the outdoor space boasts space for summertime barbeques whilst indoors allows for warm, movie nights in winter aided by a brand new boiler installation. Set in a friendly neighbourhood with numerous transport links, the location makes for easy access to West End theatres of an evening or early morning commutes to further eastern parts of the city. Even more, day trips to the countryside and connections to airports are achievable in little time by rail, too. This is truly elegant and delightful home, which will see many more happy memories to come. "
