Our Vendor Loves...

This has been the most absolutely wonderful home for the last 27 years, with memories that will be treasured forever. Situated in a Close where houses rarely become available, it is a really unique home situated in a safe, quiet, secluded, private road that is truly a sanctuary. The house has been truly loved from the day it was purchased in 1998 with much updating and TLC during that time. The house floods with natural light and the garden is a central feature being an extension of the sitting room with the visitation of very many varieties of birds - an actual woodpecker has been seen in the garden, usually heard, not seen! I have no doubt it will be a home equally loved and enjoyed by the new owners.
