SITUATION

The property is situated towards the edge of the historic market town of Hatherleigh. The town has a traditional range of amenities including supermarket, shops, art gallery and cafe, together with post office and garage/supermarket. There are two public houses, a primary school, health centre, veterinary surgery and community market. There are various sporting facilities together with an excellent modern community hall. The larger town of Okehampton has an excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose and a range of locally and nationally owned shops and businesses. The town has a modern state of the art hospital, leisure centre and schooling from infant to A-level standard. From Okehampton there is direct access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall, or East to the cathedral and university city of Exeter, with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The countryside around Hatherleigh is well known for its riding, walking and sporting facilities with fishing on the Torridge and walking and riding on the Tarka Trail and Granite Way. The north and south coasts of Devon and Cornwall are easily accessible with delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

A fine example of a Grade II listed detached residence dating back to the mid C17 with late C20 origins. The property is offered in superb order both internally and externally and offers deceptively spacious and flexible accommodation. Original features remain throughout and include beamed ceilings, exposed timbers and feature fireplaces, these are complimented by a modern kitchen, shower and bathroom. The ground floor is particularly spacious, having four reception rooms a well fitted kitchen and shower/utility room, together with a ground floor bedroom. The first floor offers four bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally are well tended gardens, being largely laid to lawn with mature flower, shrub and tree borders. A driveway and parking area provides ample parking and there is a detached garage/workshop. An internal viewing of this delightful home is recommended.
