SITUATION

Grooms Cottage occupies an attractive location, adjacent to The Old Parsonage, and backing onto the Parish Church grounds. A short walk around the corner and across the church path opens to the square, which offers the village stores, post office, butchers, primary school, pre school, public houses, veterinary and doctors surgery. There are a good range of community activities for all ages, based around the community centre, village hall and sports hall. There are good transport services with daily buses to Exeter and Barnstaple and a service to Okehampton. From the village it is a ten minute drive to Eggesford Station on the branch line to Exeter. Okehampton on the northern fringes of the Dartmoor National Park and has an excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose, modern hospital, leisure centre and sixth form college. The north and south coasts of Devon and Cornwall are easily accessible with attractive beaches and delightful coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

A charming Grade II listed detached single storey cottage set within its own grounds and attractive walled garden. The cottage itself is heated by oil fired central heating and in brief comprises a spacious sitting/dining room with high ceiling and open fireplace, and a well fitted kitchen/breakfast room overlooking the walled garden. A rear hall serves two double bedrooms and a bathroom. A particular feature of the property is the substantial detached Grade II thatched barn described as a Linhay/stable which dates from the late 18th Century. The barn is split into several spaces which includes a workshop, former stables, storage and a garage. Further loft rooms could provide games or hobbies rooms or home offices. The barn may have potential subject to the necessary consents for conversion. There is a delightful south facing walled garden and ample parking to the front. A viewing of this unique home is highly recommended and is offered with no ongoing chain.
