SITUATION

The property occupies an attractive rural setting, between the villages of Lewdown and Bridestowe. Within easy reach of the A30 and the Dartmoor National Park, the property enjoys excellent road access via the West Devon Drive. The nearby village of Lewdown has a post office/general store and public house, whilst the village of Bridestowe, offers a general stores, public house, primary school, church and village hall. The nearby town of Okehampton offers a wider range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose, modern hospital and state of the art leisure centre in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. From the property there is easy access to Sourton Down, a junction with the A30 dual carriageway, providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and university city of Exeter, with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The Dartmoor National Park is famed for its hundreds of square miles of unspoilt scenery, with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. The north coasts of Devon and Cornwall are within easy travelling distance with attractive beaches and delightful coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a Victorian former Lime Kiln of stone construction. Offering accommodation over three storeys, the property has been converted into a most attractive and versatile detached residence, which benefits from LPG gas fired central heating. Externally, the property is approached via its own long sweeping driveway with large gardens and paddocks of approximately 1.6 acres. There are attractive garden areas, a good sized pond and a useful range of stone outbuildings.

DIRECTIONS

From Okehampton, proceed out of the town in a westerly direction, as if towards Tavistock, and after approximately 2 miles join the A30 dual carriageway, take the next exit at Sourton Down, proceeding to the T-junction, before turning right and immediately left following signposts to Launceston via the West Devon Drive. Do not rejoin the A30, but continue on the West Devon Drive, passing the village of Bridestowe and on through Combebow. Just beyond Combebow, after approximately half a mile, take the left hand turning signposted to Lydford, and then immediately right, into the properties driveway.
