SITUATION

The property is located in a private no through road, set in an elevated position on the edge of town. Okehampton offers an extensive range of shops, services and facilities. There are three supermarkets (including a Waitrose) a range of nationally and locally owned shops and businesses, together with a doctors surgery and leisure centre in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. There is schooling from infant to sixth form level and numerous sporting clubs and facilities. On the edge of town is the newly opened Dartmoor train line, with direct access to Exeter and beyond. The Granite Way cycle trail which runs to the Dartmoor village of Lydford, can also be accessed at the top of Station Road, together with Okehampton Golf Course. The Dartmoor National Park offers hundreds of square miles of superb unspoilt scenery. From Okehampton there is direct access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a link to the city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections.

DESCRIPTION

Park View is a most appealing and individual Edwardian residence, a much loved family home coming to the market for the first time in over 40 years. The property is set over three floors and offers spacious and flexible accommodation throughout. A spacious entrance hall with attractive turned staircase serves the house, whilst many period features remain including high ceilings, dado and picture rails. Further features include working and ornate fireplaces, decorative corning and bay and sash windows. The property is in need of some updating and improvement, but does offer potential purchasers the opportunity to fully restore this delightful town residence. At the rear is a courtyard, lawned and former vegetable garden, in need of some restoring, along with a garage in need of replacement. The property is offered with no ongoing chain and viewing is highly recommended.
