SITUATION

Woodlands is situated in the hamlet of Broadbury, approximately 6.5 miles West of Okehampton. The town of Okehampton, offers an excellent range of local shops and services, three supermarkets (including a Waitrose) and various other local businesses. The town has schooling from infant to sixth form level, together with a train station and leisure centre in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. From Okehampton there is direct access via the A30 dual carriageway to the cathedral and university city of Exeter a further 23 miles away with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. Okehampton is situated on the northern fringes of the Dartmoor National Park, famed for hundreds of square miles of superb unspoilt scenery with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. There is also comparatively easy access to the north coasts of Devon and Cornwall with some attractive beaches and delightful coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

Woodlands is an attractive Edwardian home believed to have been constructed around 1909/10 of brick construction with later additions, benefitting from double glazed windows and ground source heating. This well proportioned family home offers three receptions room, together with a kitchen/breakfast room, utility room and shower room to the ground floor. On the first floor are four double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Many period features remain, which include working and ornate fireplaces, picture rails and high ceilings. The property would make an ideal smallholding or for equestrian use, being set within just under 18 acres of gardens and pasture with a generous amount of outbuildings and stabling, suitable for a variety of different uses.
