SITUATION

The property is situated between the villages of Whiddon Down and South Zeal, within the northern boundaries of the Dartmoor National Park. The property has stunning Dartmoor views to the rear and no immediate neighbours. South Zeal offers a recreational ground with children's playground, sports field, skate park, tennis court, snooker club and modern pavilion available for hire. The Oxenham Arms (a historic public house and small hotel), a further country pub The Kings Arms and an excellent primary school. There are regular bus services to and from Exeter and access can easily be gained to the A30 dual carriageway at nearby Whiddon Down. The former market town of Okehampton is some 5 miles distant and offers an excellent range of amenities including 3 supermarkets, nationally and locally owned shops, hospital and a leisure centre in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. There is schooling from infant to A-level standard and various sports and leisure facilities including thriving rugby and football clubs, as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The Dartmoor National Park is easily accessible from the property and offers hundreds of square miles of superb unspoilt scenery with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits.

DESCRIPTION

Hare Path Cottage is an attractive stone built family residence, dating to C1905 and occupies a prominent elevated position set back from the road, set in grounds of 1/4 of an acre. From the rear there are superb panoramic views over adjoining countryside to the hills of Dartmoor. The property is offered in excellent order throughout, being double glazed and oil fired centrally heated. The main house offers a utility room and cloakroom, a modern fitted kitchen and sitting/dining room, together with a small study off. On the first floor are three bedrooms, with newly fitted en suite and family bathroom. Converted from the former threshing barn in 2015 is a delightful and spacious one bedroom barn conversion currently used as ancillary accommodation or potential income with airbnb. The barn offers a spacious kitchen with glazed doors overlooking the garden and countryside, a large sitting room with French doors to its own decked seating area, a double bedroom and shower room. This has a wet underfloor heating supplied via a boiler and there are 16 solar panels on the roof which provide an income. Lawned gardens lie to both the front and rear and there is an ample parking and turning area and substantial former nissen hut suitable for a variety of different uses.
