SITUATION

The property is located within the village of Sourton, set slightly back off the A386. Sourton village boasts the renowned Highwayman Inn public house, together with a village hall and church. Just a short distance away, a track leads up to the Granite Way, which runs between Okehampton and Lydford along the old railway line, offering extensive off road cycling and walking within this attractive region, whilst directly beyond is the fantastic open expanse of the Dartmoor National Park with many opportunities for riding, walking and outdoor pursuits. The A30 is within very easy reach, offering direct access west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and university city of Exeter and the M5 motorway network. The popular town of Tavistock lies to the South, whilst Okehampton is approximately 5 miles to the north.
