SITUATION

The property is situated approximately one mile away from the peaceful village of Petrockstowe. The village itself is surrounded by typically rolling Devonshire countryside and offers a parish church and village hall. The historic market town of Hatherleigh is within a short drive, offering an good range of shops and services, which include a primary school, doctors and veterinary surgeries, public houses and a supermarket. The town of Okehampton has an excellent range of amenities with three supermarkets including a Waitrose, a range of high street shops, leisure centre and cinema, together with schooling from infant to sixth form level. From Okehampton there is direct access via train to Exeter and beyond, or via the A30 dual carriageway providing a link west into Cornwall and East to Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. From Petrockstowe there is easy access to the scenic Tarka Trail with its opportunities for walking and cycling and the North Devon towns of Torrington and Bideford are within easy reach. There is also easy access to the north coasts of Devon and Cornwall with some delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises, a deceptively spacious and well presented reverse level former cider barn, believed to have been converted in the early 1990's. The barn combines many attractive character features, with the benefits of modern living and fittings. Benefitting from hard wood double glazing, together with oil fired central heating. The gardens and grounds are superb, and predominantly comprise of extensive lawns/paddocks with areas of mature trees and woodland areas. Further benefits include garaging, stables and a garden office, together with formal gardens and seating areas. All set within 4.4 acres. A viewing of this delightful unique home is highly recommended.
