SITUATION
Pound House is well situated within the village, being within easy walking distance of South Zeal, an attractive rural community, situated within the northern boundaries of the Dartmoor National Park. The village amenities include two well patronised public houses and an excellent primary school. There are also regular bus services to and from Exeter and access can be gained to the A30 dual carriageway at nearby Whiddon Down. The former market town of Okehampton is some 5 miles distant and offers an excellent range of amenities including 3 supermarkets, nationally and locally owned shops, hospital, and leisure centre situated in the attractive setting of Simmons Park. There is schooling for all ages to 'A' level standard and various sports and leisure facilities, including thriving rugby and football clubs as well as tennis, squash and bowls. The Dartmoor National Park which is easily accessible from South Zeal by footpaths and bridleways offers hundreds of square miles of unspoilt scenery with many opportunities for riding and walking.

DESCRIPTION
Pound Cottage has undergone a complete renovation within recent years. The cottage still retains it's original charm, offering exposed timbers and window sills, together with an inglenook fireplace in the sitting room. This is well complemented by modern comforts such as double glazed windows and oil fired central heating, with radiators to the first floor and underfloor engineered oak floors to the ground floor. The kitchen has been attractively fitted with a range of integral appliances, whilst a new cloakroom and bathroom to the first floor are also newly completed. The property is offered with no ongoing chain and also boasts off road parking, garden and a store shed.
