SITUATION
Upper Metherrill is set in a semi rural position in a quiet, yet not isolated position down a private 'no through' lane. The nearest facilities can be found in the popular village of Halwill Junction, which include primary school, village store/post office and hairdresser's, there is a thriving village hall offering various clubs and functions, together with a popular public house. The village enjoys regular bus services, which run between Bude and Exeter, whilst a more comprehensive range of shops and services can be found in Okehampton. The property is surrounded by attractive open countryside and there are many opportunities locally for riding and walking via trails or upon Dartmoor, whilst the north coasts of Devon and Cornwall are within easy driving distance.

DESCRIPTION
Upper Metherrill is a well presented and much improved detached bungalow offering adaptable and flexible accommodation (as shown on the floor plan). The property is currently utilised as a family home, but could easily be split if required, to provide two family occupation. The property was believed to have been constructed in 1978 with an extension added in 1995. Believed to be of timber construction with part concrete/block walls, under an interlocking concrete tiled roof. The property is Upvc double glazed and benefits from an LPG gas boiler providing the hot water, with new wifi controlled electric radiators to the majority of rooms.. A modern detached annexe was added in 2020, providing well appointed two bedroom accommodation, with its own separate garden and parking area. In past years, the property was run as a kennels and cattery, closing in 2001 and subject to the necessary permissions there is potential for returning to business use if so required. The property occupies a delightful position offering panoramic views to the rear towards Dartmoor and sits within its own grounds of 4.3 acres, comprising ample areas of parking with numerous outbuildings and is set amidst delightful well established gardens with an adjoining large paddock suitable for a number of uses.
