SITUATION

The property sits towards the edge of the popular rural village of Merton (conservation area) with easy access to the A386, linking North Devon and Okehampton. Merton is well known for its large village square flanked by a number of period houses and cottages, together with parish church. Facilities include a primary school, local inn and superb modern village hall with excellent sports and community facilities. The village itself is surrounded by rolling typically Devon countryside, the Torridge valley being famous for its connection with Tarka the Otter and the well known Tarka Trail with walking and cycling runs close to the village. There is easy access to the market towns of Great Torrington and Bideford to the north and Hatherleigh and Okehampton to the south. From Okehampton there is direct access to the A30 dual carriage way providing a direct link to Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The Dartmoor National Park is accessible at Okehampton whilst the north coasts of Devon and Cornwall have delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

A historic Grade II* listed detached former farmhouse dating back to C1500, extensively remodelled and extended in early to mid C17 with C19 addition. Many period features remain which include several fireplaces, some of which have feature decorative overmantle mouldings to the sitting room and bedrooms one and two. This property has been let for many years and is deceptively spacious, being in need of some updating and improvement, but offering great potential. Outside a substantial driveway offers ample parking. A large outbuilding (former stables) provides a great space for animals, workshops etc, whilst there is a double garage, garden store and outside WC. To the front is an enclosed garden, together with a paddock area to the side and rear. The total plot extends to approximately 0.87 of an acre and is offered with no ongoing chain and viewing is highly recommended.
