SITUATION

Situated within the heart of the old town of Hatherleigh. The town offers a traditional range of amenities including supermarket, shops, art gallery and cafe, together with post office and garage/supermarket. There are two public houses, a primary school, health centre, veterinary surgery and community market. There are various sporting facilities together with an excellent modern community hall. The larger town of Okehampton has an excellent range of shops and services, three supermarkets including a Waitrose and a range of locally and nationally owned shops and businesses. The town has a modern state of the art hospital, leisure centre and schooling from infant to A-level standard. From Okehampton there is direct access to the A30 dual carriageway providing a direct link west into Cornwall or east to the cathedral and university city of Exeter with its M5 motorway, main line rail and international air connections. The countryside around Hatherleigh is well known for its recreational and sporting facilities with fishing on the Torridge and walking and riding on the Tarka Trail and Granite Way. The North and South coasts of Devon and Cornwall are easily accessible with delightful beaches and attractive coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

A Grade II listed, mid 19th century, double fronted semi detached house which comes to the market for the first time in just under 50 years. The property offers deceptively spacious accommodation, offering two reception rooms, with four first floor bedrooms and a spacious attic room. Period features remain which include high ceiling and picture rails. There is an open fireplace to the main sitting room and independent electric heating. A generous cobbled courtyard lies to the rear, where there is a large outbuilding, proving garaging, workshop space etc, with a large first floor area, suitable for a variety of uses. Elevated beyond is a generous enclosed garden offering views over the town and beyond. The property is offered with no ongoing chain and viewing is highly recommended.
