Twyn Square, Usk, Monmouthshire NP15 1BH

Characterful home in converted church
Two double bedrooms and two shower rooms
Many original features inc. original arched windows

Upon stepping into the main hallway of this unique home, you are immediately greeted by a sense of character and history. To your left, a spacious walk-in storage cupboard offers ample space for coats, shoes, and household essentials, keeping the entrance tidy and organised.

Adjacent to this is a convenient shower room, tastefully designed with a double shower enclosure and a modern white suite.

The room is completed by an ornate stained glass-style window, which adds a touch of charm and elegance, ensuring that even practical spaces have an artistic flair.

Continuing on this level, the principal bedroom is a true sanctuary. This generously sized room features a stunning, large original arch with windows that provide serene views of the surrounding trees.

The arch not only adds to the room's grandeur but also pays homage to the property's historic roots, blending old-world charm with modern living.

Attached to the bedroom is a well-appointed dressing room, providing abundant storage space and ensuring a clutter-free environment. The en-suite facilities are equally impressive, featuring a contemporary white suite with a sleek shower, offering both comfort and convenience.

Ascending the stairs from the main hallway brings you to the landing area, which serves as the hub for the upper floor. Here, you'll find the dining area, which benefits from a window to the side, flooding the space with natural light. The adjacent kitchen is thoughtfully designed with a range of fitted wall and base units, seamlessly integrated with modern appliances, including a fridge freezer and washing machine. The kitchen's front-facing obscure glazed windows maintain privacy while allowing light to filter through, creating a bright and welcoming space for meal preparation.

Also on this level is the second bedroom, currently utilised as a home office. With a side window that allows for pleasant views and ample light, this room is versatile, easily adaptable to your needs whether as a bedroom, study, or creative space.

From the dining area, a staircase leads to the galleried lounge, an impressive and airy space that perfectly blends the property's history with contemporary design. This lounge offers far-reaching views over Usk from a side window, enhancing the sense of openness.

The original archway with stained glass-style windows to the front is a striking feature, showcasing the architectural heritage of the building and providing a beautiful focal point in this truly remarkable home. If so required, this room could easily facilitate a third bedroom and the dining room could become the main lounge if potential buyers wanted an additional bedroom.
