Description

The effort that has gone into the creation of The Wedmore is evident in every detail, from the unique design of the doorway, and use of space on the lower ground floor, to the classic charm of the brickwork. This is a four bedroom home that has been made with all of the needs of modern family life in mind, yet has never sacrificed style in the quest for functionality.

The open plan nature of the kitchen/dining area allows light to flood through the property, creating a delightful atmosphere in which to spend time together as a family. The equally spacious lounge can be opened up to create a free flow around the home, or closed off, perfect for moments when one wants to enjoy a moment of relaxation. There is also a generous snug that can serve well for children or adults as a playroom or study alike!

With four large double bedrooms, two of which are en-suite, there is plenty of room for everyone and for the family to grow without having to move again!

The Wedmore also includes a double integral garage and a handy ground floor storage area - perfect for muddy boots or a home gym!
