Location

Langford is a picturesque village located in North Somerset, nestled near the northern edge of the Mendip Hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. It lies roughly halfway between the city of Bristol and the town of Weston-super-Mare, making it an ideal rural location with easy access to urban amenities.

Langford has a variety of amenities and a local school, but is best known for being home to part of the University of Bristol's Veterinary School, which brings a blend of academic activity and agricultural heritage to the area. The nearby Langford House and veterinary campus add a distinctive educational character to the otherwise quiet countryside setting.

Surrounded by rolling farmland, hedgerows, and scenic country lanes, Langford is a haven for walkers and nature enthusiasts. Its proximity to the Mendip Hills, Blagdon Lake, and Chew Valley offers abundant opportunities for outdoor recreation, from hiking and cycling to birdwatching.
