Ashtree House

A substantial, well presented detached four bedroom house located on the fringe of the popular village of Gilwern. Built circa 20 years ago, this individually designed house benefits from its spacious rooms and well proportioned accommodation. Situated in a generous and private plot, bordered by mature trees.

- Beautifully presented 4 bedroom detached house
- Three reception rooms
- Kitchen with a separate utility room
- Low maintenance garden to the rear
- Private gardens to the front
- Driveway providing ample parking
- Within easy access to transport links

STEP INSIDE

Enter through a part glazed door into a welcoming entrance hall with stairs to the first floor and doors off to the principal downstairs rooms which briefly comprise; a sitting room with woodburner and rustic Oak fireplace surround which is open plan through to the dining room with double doors out to the rear garden. The kitchen is at the back of the property with a useful separate utility room and then leading back toward the front door a downstairs cloakroom and extra reception room which is currently being used as a study but could also be a downstairs bedroom. To the first floor are four bedrooms, all of which have built in storage and the principle bedroom also has an ensuite with shower. The accommodation is completed by a family bathroom with roll top bath and separate shower cubicle.

STEP OUTSIDE

The rear patio garden can be accessed via double doors in the dining room or from the utility and has a side gate through to the front garden. The front garden is partitioned off from the driveway by hedging and shrubbery and is gravelled with an array of pots and an area ideal for outside eating. The driveway is accessed via a gate and has parking for multiple vehicles.

LOCATION

The property is located approximately 1 mile from the village of Gilwern. The village enjoys an outstanding position in the Brecon Beacons National Park yet is situated just 4 miles from the historic market town of Abergavenny. Local facilities in the village include a bustling high street with individual shops including a butchers and a post office, several public houses, a village hall, petrol garage, church, a highly regarded primary school and, of course, the canal wharf on the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal. The area is well known for outdoor and leisure pursuits including hill walking, cycling, and hang gliding. For more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities, Abergavenny is easily accessible and boasts high street shops and local boutiques as well as many restaurants and cafes. The area is well-served with schools for all ages. Abergavenny railway station provides services to central London via Newport as well as Cardiff and Manchester. Road links within the area are considered excellent with the A465 Heads of the Valleys road providing access to the A470 for Cardiff, A4042/A449 for Newport and the M50 and M4 motorways.
