LOCATION

Llanthony Priory is a partly ruined former Augustinian priory in the secluded Vale of Ewyas, a valley within the Black Mountains area of the Brecon Beacons (Bannau Brycheiniog) National Park. The Llanthony valley is popular with walkers, horse riders and cyclists. The village of Llanthony has a public house, The Half Moon, and a bar and restaurant at The Priory. The famous Offas Dyke path is accessible nearby and is a very popular area for hill walkers all year round. Hay-on-Wye is approximately 8 miles away and is renowned for its selection of book shops and holds an annual Book Festival, that attracts many celebrities and visitors to the area. The historic market town of Abergavenny is approximately 10 miles away, and has excellent amenities, including hospital, primary and secondary schools, vibrant shopping centre and has links to the A449/A40 and A465. These A Roads lead to the motorway networks of M4/M5 and M50. The pretty market town of Crickhowell is approximately 15 miles away. The cities of Bristol and Cardiff are approximately 50 miles and 40 miles respectively from Abergavenny. The railway station in Abergavenny connects to the larger stations of Newport, Bristol, Cardiff and Hereford.

Seller Insight

6 Ty Llwyd is a peaceful and restorative haven. We have spent days exploring the mountains, and the countryside; we have spent summer evenings under the brilliant stars and winter nights curled up next to the log burner; we have fallen asleep to the sound of the river and woken to birdsong. The Llanthony Valley is a beautiful, special place, and Ty Llwyd a much loved home.
