We are thrilled to present this charming terraced family home, nestled in a sought-after location just a brief stroll from Twickenham town center and the mainline train station.

Boasting generous living spaces, the accommodation comprises a spacious reception room, a well-appointed fully equipped kitchen, a dining room with sliding doors opening onto the garden, four bedrooms, and two bathrooms.

Additional highlights include a sizable and meticulously maintained rear garden, offering ample outdoor space for relaxation and recreation, as well as a gated large driveway providing convenient off-street parking.

With the added advantage of being situated within the catchment area for local primary schools and enjoying easy access to the A316 and Twickenham station, this property offers both comfort and convenience for modern family living.
