Location

The site lies to the south west of Long Buckby village and is accessed off Station Road.

Long Buckby is a popular village, well placed for all major roads, being only 1 mile from the A5 which in turn leads to the M1 at both Junctions 16 and 18, then to the M6 and A14. One of the major benefits of the site is its proximity to Long Buckby's railway station which is on the Northampton loop line which joins the West Coast main line at Rugby and Northampton, this brings London Euston within one hour travelling time and Birmingham within 40 minutes.

Long Buckby is a village with a population according to the 2011 Census of approximately 3,913 and has significant local amenities including a number of convenience stores, public houses, restaurants, take aways. It is a short walk to the local doctors' surgery and around ten minutes by rail from Northampton and Rugby.
