Location

Norton is a charming village located just 2 miles East from Daventry which is known for its picturesque countryside and rich history dating back to Roman times. Although relatively small, Norton is part of a vibrant rural community with local amenities within walking distance including a public house with "take away" fish and chip service, the beautiful All Saints church, and a village hall. The area is also well-situated for outdoor activities, such as walking, cycling, and enjoying the surrounding countryside.

This well serviced village offers convenient access to major road links including the A5 and M1, sitting within short commute to Long Buckby station providing swift rail connections to London Euston and Birmingham New Street, and even more amenities further afield such as 'Heart of the Shires Shopping Village'. A community bus service runs to Daventry a couple days a week, during the day but not at work or school times which must be pre-booked.

Norton, like much of Daventry, has benefitted from the expansion of nearby towns, such as Northampton and Rugby, making it a desirable location for those who seek the peace and charm of village life but still want access to urban conveniences.
