Location

The pleasant quiet village of Charwelton is situated approximately 6 miles southwest of the market town of Daventry and 12 miles northwest of the market town of Banbury. The village adjoins the Banbury to Daventry Road which allows easy access to both Junction 16 of the M1 and Junction 11 of the M40. The well-known beauty spots of Badby Woods and Everdon Stubbs are also nearby. Within the village there is a popular public house and there is the historical parish church and also a chapel which was built originally as a Wesleyan chapel. The village hall boasts a very active community centre and there are further facilities in the villages of Badby and Byfield which offer primary schools, health centre, village stores, restaurants and other public houses.

Ground Floor

Entering through the side door steps in to the kitchen/diner, benefitting tiled underfloor heating leading through to the dining area and French doors out to the garden. The kitchen has a range of wall mounted and base level units, work surfaces incorporating; one and a half sink unit, integrated fridge/freezer, plumbing and space for washing machine and dishwasher, and recess space for electric range style cooker. There is access through to the lounge with the focal point being a woodburning stove, featuring exposed ceiling timbers and windows to front elevation. Access from the kitchen leads to a second reception room with a lovely original cast iron stove inset into a brick fireplace and exposed ceiling beams, with downstairs WC and stairs rising to the first floor accommodation.

First Floor

The landing leads to all principal rooms and provides loft access. There are four generous bedrooms with the master enjoying an en-suite shower room, and built-in wardrobe space to two further bedrooms. Large family bathroom comprising of WC, bath, shower cubicle and wash basin.

Outside

Outside, the cottage is situated on Chapel which is a quiet backwater of the village. To the side of the property there is a gravel driveway which provides ample off-road parking for three cars and access to a single garage. The main garden is situated to the rear of the property and can be accessed via a panelled gate off the driveway. There is a terrace area adjacent to the rear of the property. The rest of the garden is mainly laid to lawn with well-established shrub borders, and steps lead to a further raised garden area situated to the rear of the property.
