Situation

About 200 metres from the centre of town, Bowles Court is in the ideal spot. Conveniently located, Bowles Court is close to a variety of local supermarkets. The dynamic town centre boasts access to a local hospital and plenty of doctors surgeries. Banks, retail stores and independent shops are also in good supply. This historical market town also benefits from regular town markets. Places of interest in the local area are varied with John Coles Park, the Museum, the Heritage Centre and Chippenham Folk Festival just a few examples. For those interested in wider travel, transport links are strong with a regular bus service connecting residents to towns including Bath, Calne, Devizes, Trowbridge and Swindon. Rail links are also good and Chippenham railway station features along the main line to London Paddington. It also retains some impressive railway arches and architectural triumphs built by the famous engineer Brunel. As an ancient riverside market town, Chippenham also has plenty of historical intrigue for those interested in living in this area. Natural attractions are also found in abundance with the River Avon, the Cotswolds, Salisbury Plain and Birds Marsh (a large marshland of around 24 hectares or 29 acres) just a few places in the area you might like to visit.
