Turnpike Cottage is a spacious, well presented, detached, period house which occupies a generous plot with private, mature gardens to the side and rear backing onto open fields, detached garage and ample driveway parking.

The property offers versatile accommodation over two floors comprising; entrance porch, good sized sitting room with exposed floorboards, dining room with exposed floorboards and feature inglenook fireplace, garden room with French doors opening onto the garden, conservatory/sun room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility/rear lobby, ground floor bathroom with free standing bath, shower room, bedroom one with Velux window and built in cupboards and two further bedrooms (accessed via a second staircase).

Externally there is a small, enclosed garden to the front. To the side and rear of the property there are large, predominately lawned gardens with bushes and mature trees. The gardens enjoy a lovely outlook to the rear over open fields and a good deal of privacy.

Detached garage with double doors to front. Driveway parking for numerous vehicles.

Situation

The property is situated on the edge of the village of Stanton St Quintin which lies midway between the historic market towns of Malmesbury and Chippenham, conveniently located for the M4 motorway network giving access to London, Bristol, Bath and Swindon. The village has a primary school, country hotel/restaurant and Norman Church, whilst numerous walkways and open countryside surround the area. Nearby villages provide amenities including secondary schools at Malmesbury and Chippenham. Chippenham station provides mainline services to London Paddington, in approximately one and a half hours.
