Breadstone House, Berkeley, GL13 9HG

SITUATION

The property occupies an extremely convenient position set in an attractive semi-rural location, yet within a few minutes drive of the A38 giving access to the M5/M4 motorway network. Also close at hand is the Cam and Dursley Railway Station with onward connections to the National Rail network. Breadstone is an attractive hamlet set in the Vale of Berkeley, the historic town of Berkeley is famous for its Castle and Jenner Museum and has a range of local shops. A wider range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities can be found in the larger centres of Dursley and Thornbury.

DIRECTIONS

If travelling on the A38 in a southerly direction from the Slimbridge roundabout, continue for approximately one mile passing the turning for Dursley on the left hand side and take the next turning right signposted Breadstone, continue for approximately half a mile and follow the road as it bears sharply to the left, continue for approximately 100 metres and Breadstone House will be found on the right hand side.

DESCRIPTION

This attractive detached house has cut stone elevations with stone porch and double bay mullion windows to the front. The property was extended in the late 1980's and 1990's with the addition of the conversion of The Coach House with a covered walkway leading between the two sections. The property in all provides 34 bedrooms, many with en-suites and set in a good sized plot with most attractive long driveway with central turning circle. The property benefits from oil fired radiator central heating, propane gas for cooking and sewage treatment plant. The property is being offered for existing Care Use and must be seen to be fully appreciated.
