Situation

This attractive detached cottage is situated on the outskirts of the popular Cotswold village of Uley. Uley is situated on the lower slopes of the Cotswold Escarpment and is in an area designated as one of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Village facilities include a Post Office, church, village hall, primary school, village pub, Prema Arts centre and cafe along with playing field. A wider range of shopping facilities can be found in the nearby Dursley and Cam centres along with secondary schooling. The town of Stroud also has an extensive range of shopping facilities including independent and grammar schools. The village is well located for commuting throughout the south west including Gloucester, Bristol, Bath and Cheltenham with the M5 and M4 motorway network being within easy reach. Main line railway stations can be found in Stroud, Stonehouse and Kemble.

Directions

If travelling from Dursley town centre, proceed out of town in an easterly direction on the B4066. On entering the village you will see a bus shelter and telephone box on the right hand side, take your next right and follow the road round to your right. Approximately two hundred yards along this road take your right hand turning onto Shadwell. The property can be found on your right hand side.
