Location Surrounded by lovely open countryside and enjoying superb views over Lake Windermere, Stables Cottage is located just a mile from the lake shore on the quieter western flank of Lake Windermere. The car ferry connects Far Sawrey with a point on the eastern shore just one mile south of Bowness and if approaching from the ferry the property is found in an elevated position after around a mile on the right. Alternatively, approaching from Ambleside take the A593 heading for Coniston, turning left onto the B5286 towards Hawkshead and follow the B5285 signposted for Sawrey, Windermere and the ferry. The entrance drive to Sawrey Knotts can be found on the left at the sharp bend shortly after the Cuckoo Brow Inn. The cottage is at the top of the driveway to the left of the main building in what was originally the stable block.

Description This lovely one bedroomed cottage sits within 3 acres of beautiful communal grounds with wonderful lake views. You can stroll along to the pub, down to the lake or simply ramble through some of the most gorgeous scenery around, all quite literally from the doorstep.

Superbly placed, this delightful property has vaulted ceiling, creating a wonderful sense of space and light, and includes a lovely open plan living space with views over the roofs to the lake in the valley below. There is plenty of space in which to cook, dine and relax, and includes a double bedroom, bathroom, and an allocated parking space.

Sawrey Knotts was built as an elegant and stylish gentleman's residence in 1861, and must have been a truly magnificent home when it was occupied as a private residence. In 2002 it was carefully sub-divided to create six unique apartments in the main building with three further homes in the old stable mews. As you might expect from the name, this cottage was once part of the stable building serving the grand house, now tastefully transformed into a romantic retreat for two.

Entering from the cobbled and flagged courtyard, the entrance hall has plenty of space for dealing with coats and boots. To maximise the wonderful views, the cottage has been configured upside-down. From the entrance hall, a door leads to the spacious double bedroom (with king size bed) and ensuite three-piece bathroom beyond having panel bath with shower attachment, pedestal wash basin, and WC, tiled walls and floor, and heated towel rail/radiator.

Stairs from the hall lead to the characterful open-plan living room and kitchen area above. With high vaulted ceilings and original exposed timbers, the views towards Windermere, Gummars Howe and countryside beyond are stunning. The Aga log burning stove with its tall chimney pipe is sure to keep you snug, and the fully equipped modern kitchen brings the Lake District feel indoors with its locally quarried slate worktops and flooring. Integrated Whirlpool appliances include a ceramic hob set above a separate oven, with extractor over, and there is also a compact dishwasher.

The beautiful communal gardens provide dramatic views of the high peaks of the Coniston Mountain range, whilst quiet little footpaths wind down to the lake shore (where pedestrian and car ferries can transport you to Bowness, Ambleside or on to Lakeside), along to the highly regarded Cuckoo Brow Inn, the famous Tower Bank Arms or onto the surrounding fells and countryside. The pretty and historic village of Hawkshead is just a short drive away, and delightful
