Originally built as a three bedroomed detached bungalow and then extended in more recent years to add a wonderful bright conservatory style lounge at the rear and two further double bedrooms with a WC on the first floor. To the front is the entrance sun porch, glazed on three sides and having ample room for dealing with damp coats, muddy boots and soggy dogs - a welcoming entrance to this rather special home.

The L shaped hallway includes a useful storage cupboard, whilst stairs lead to the first floor. The highlight of this home is surely the fabulous bright open plan living space which includes a dual aspect sitting room, sleek modern kitchen and conservatory style dining area which leads seamlessly to the well maintained level garden. Providing extra relaxation and dining space, this lovely light and airy room (with natural light flooding in from the large sky lights) is a welcome addition. Patio doors lead to the well maintained garden bringing the outside in, and extending the already generous living space - ideal for entertaining and gathering with friends and family.

The kitchen area has contemporary wall and base units with soft close doors and drawers, and complementary silestone work surfaces incorporating a breakfast bar area for informal dining, and a stainless-steel sink with mixer tap. Integrated Neff appliances include a four ring ceramic hob with extractor over, separate grill, and oven. Additionally there is a Bosch dishwasher, a fridge freezer, wine fridge and plumbing provision for an automatic washing machine. The utility area has an external door, which also leads to the rear patio area.

Additionally on the ground floor are two spacious double bedrooms (one with integrated wardrobes), supplemented with a bathroom which has tiled walls and a three piece suite comprising a panel bath with Mira shower over, pedestal wash hand basin and a WC.

Heading upstairs, the landing here has a Velux which lets natural light stream in. Both first floor bedrooms have sloping ceilings, with limited head height in places, but benefit from excellent under eaves storage. Clever use of the space here has resulted in a WC cloakroom tucked between the two bedrooms on this floor.

Outside, located in the former detached garage, is a home gym, with some workshop/ storage space found in the remaining original part of the garage. With two up and over doors, this practical space has both power and light.

With so much beauty all around, it is easy to imagine this spacious property as a highly popular holiday let, but for those seeking a little segregation between their home and work space, one of the four double bedrooms might also be considered an ideal candidate for employment as an office, although converting the home gym/garage would allow for an even better degree of separation whilst offering one of the shortest of commutes with some of the most dramatic views! With plenty of options for those lucky enough to be able to work from home in such a delightful setting, this immaculately presented, bright home might fit the bill perfectly for anyone considering re-locating to this wonderful part of the world or with half an eye on retirement, or semi-retirement in the coming years.

This well balanced, sunny, south west facing property is perfect - whether you are seeking a welcoming family home, a splendid holiday let or a peaceful weekend retreat in truly delightful surroundings.

Location A short walk from the front door can take you to the heart of the village where a mix of local independent and nationally recognised shops await, alongside an excellent selection of traditional local inns and cafes. The more energetic might fancy hiking any of the dramatic peaks on view, an impressive list which includes Coniston Old Man, Brim Fell, Swirl How and Yew Pike amongst others, whilst a more low level stroll can take you down to the lake shore where a variety of water sports options await.
