Property Overview

Step in through the front door into the generous living room, with front aspect window and focal stone fire surround, ready for a fire to be inserted, with stairs leading to the first floor. With space for a dining table, there is ample space to enjoy meals with the family, and a door opens into the inner hallway, ideal for hanging coats with access into the shower room.

The shower room offers neutral décor and is now ready for a new buyer to add their own touch, comprising a corner shower, W.C., pedestal sink and part tiled walls.

Turning right, you are welcomed into the kitchen; a modern and well fitted space with shaker wall and base units, complementary worktop and tiled splashback, with a stainless steel sink and drainer. Integrated appliances include a Cooke & Lewis oven and hob with extractor over, with space for an undercounter fridge and a door leading out to the rear patio garden.

Follow the stairs to the first floor, split level landing where you will find the three bedrooms, all being well presented with a modern feel. Bedroom one and two are both double rooms offering ample space for additional furniture, whilst bedroom three is a smaller room, enjoying a window to the front aspect.

Location Ingleton is a vibrant village, located immediately on the border of the Yorkshire Dales National Park and sitting just below the 'Three Peaks'. It is popular with tourists who enjoy walking and outdoor pursuits with some stunning limestone scenery and is also only c25 miles from the southern Lake District.

The village offers a good range of bars, pubs and shops and essential services, together with schools, church and community centre. The village has a good Primary School and is in the catchment for both Settle College and QES, Kirkby Lonsdale. Local amenities are within easy access, including the open-air swimming pool and a large Co-op grocery store with petrol forecourt. Ingleton is within easy reach of the M6 and West Coast Main Line (Oxenholme) and the market towns of Kendal, Settle and Lancaster.
