Property Overview

Step through the door into the entrance hall where the sense of character and charm is immediately apparent, with the flagged stone floor and original beam welcoming you in. A handy under stairs cupboard provides space for storage as well as an additional cupboard by the front door.

On the right of the entrance hall is the snug, a cosy room with two windows to the front aspect and focal point log burner with a stone surround, ideal for those cooler evenings, as well as boasting traditional beams for a charming feel. To the left of the entrance hall is the utility, fitted with base units, a sink and space for a washing machine and housing the Worcester boiler. A handy cloakroom with sink and W.C. can also be found here. The utility provides access into the garage. The garage is a fantastic workshop space.

Follow the stairs to the first floor where you are welcomed to the main living spaces and master bedroom. The living room enjoys space for a dining table, with patio door and floor to ceiling windows opening into the garden, filling the space with light and creating a seamless blend outside, ideal for entertaining throughout the summer months. Follow into the kitchen which comprises; wall and base units, complementary worktops with a tiled splashback and a stainless steel sink.

Across the landing you will find bedroom one; a generous double with feature beams and space for additional furniture as desired. The handy en suite comprises a shower, pedestal sink and W.C. with part tiled walls and storage cupboard for housing essentials.

Following the stairs to the second floor. Bedroom two would lend itself as an ideal twin room and has a handy integrated wardrobe and rear aspect window boasting views over the garden. A further room on this floor enjoys a feature gallery landing over the living room, with great potential as a study or third bedroom with built in deep wardrobes and views over the garden. Finally, the family bathroom comprises a bath with electric shower over, W.C. and pedestal sink.

The real show stopper to this home is the beautifully maintained rear garden; boasting an array of mature shrubs, flowers and fruit trees, there is also a vegetable patch for the keen gardener and a patio for outdoor seating. A handy shed provides storage for outdoor essentials, and steps lead to a generous lawn area, lined with hedges for privacy and boasting views to the Howgills beyond.

Offering generous living with potential to really make this home your own, Birks Barn would suit a range of buyers from growing families to those looking for a charming property within a peaceful, sought after location. If you feel this may
