The property is ideally positioned for those craving rural tranquillity without compromising on accessibility, just 4 miles from Junction 37 of the M6 and the thriving community of Sedbergh, with Oxenholme Railway Station only a 15 minute drive away.

Stepping inside, you're welcomed by a bright and versatile sun room entrance that sets the tone for the rest of the home. The ground floor offers a wealth of charming living spaces, including a dual-aspect dining room with exposed beams and a generous living room full of period character; featuring traditional details, ample natural light, and a cosy wood-burning stove. The kitchen, while ready for modernisation, provides an excellent footprint for creating a stylish country kitchen or open-plan family space.

Upstairs, the home continues to impress with three individually styled bedrooms, exposed timber beams, and scenic views of the surrounding countryside. A family bathroom and additional W.C. serve this level, with scope for reconfiguration. The second floor attic room, complete with en suite, provides flexible accommodation ideal for a principal suite, guest room, home office, or creative studio.

Outside, Broad Raine's extensive gardens include lawns perfect for family activities or entertaining, a greenhouse, shed and vegetable patches, ideal for keen gardeners. Perhaps most notably, the property's ownership of part of the River Lune creates a stunning natural boundary and serene outlook, offering the new owners a slice of true countryside charm.

Two shared driveways provide convenient access and off-road parking, while three separate outbuildings offer further scope for workshops, hobby spaces, or additional storage (subject to any necessary consents).

While the property would benefit from general upgrading and redecoration, its generous proportions, unique features, and idyllic location make it a rare gem with limitless potential. Broad Raine is more than a home, it's an opportunity to craft your own rural haven by the river.
