The bungalow sits in a good-sized plot with off-road parking to the front and a private, rear garden. The layout is practical and well-designed, offering everything needed for comfortable day-to-day living, all on one level.

As you step through the front door, there is a welcoming entrance area with space to take off shoes and coats, as well as a useful storage cupboard. From here, you walk directly into the main living room-a bright, dual-aspect space with windows to the front and side, which allow plenty of natural light. An electric fire adds a focal point and warmth during the cooler months.

To the rear of the property, the double bedroom also benefits from a dual-aspect outlook, making it a pleasant and airy space. There's enough room for a double bed and bedroom furniture.

Next door is the kitchen, which is well-equipped with a range of wall and base units. It includes an oven and four-ring hob, an integrated fridge, space for a washing machine, and a sink unit positioned next to a rear-facing window. A door from the kitchen provides access to the rear garden, offering a nice connection between indoor and outdoor spaces.

The bathroom is fitted with a four-piece suite, including a bath, a separate shower cubicle, WC, wash basin, and a generous built-in storage cupboard, providing excellent space for linens and toiletries.

One of the standout features of this property is its private garden. To the rear, there's a sunny decked area ideal for outdoor seating or entertaining in the warmer months. The garden continues around the side of the property, where you'll find a handy storage shed and bin storage, and to the front, the plot provides easy off-road parking.
