From the porch, you are drawn into the open-plan living, kitchen, and dining space, the heart of the home. The living area is cosy and comfortable, carpeted for warmth and featuring a log-burning stove, perfect for chilly evenings. A large window to the front aspect lets in plenty of natural light while maintaining privacy.

The kitchen area has been thoughtfully designed to combine practicality with style. Featuring soft-close base units, quartz worktops and oven surround, dual fuel multi purpose cooker and a classic butler sink. There's room for a dining table, making it perfect for entertaining, as well as an understairs cupboard providing handy additional storage. A door at the rear of the kitchen leads directly to the garden, offering seamless indoor-outdoor living.

Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned double bedrooms. The front room enjoys an open outlook over High Street, while the rear overlooks the peaceful garden and surrounding greenery. Both rooms feature traditional latch doors and double glazed sash windows, combining period charm with modern practicality.

The modern bathroom is finished to a high standard and features a three-piece suite, including a full-sized bath with overhead shower, a vanity sink unit, and a low-level WC.

The rear garden is a true highlight of the property-an ideal spot for relaxing, gardening, or alfresco dining. From the kitchen, step out onto a patio area with a useful storage shed. Steps lead up to a lawned area and continue to a raised decked terrace with pergola, offering an elevated area to enjoy the sunshine or entertain guests with a BBQ. The garden is both practical and beautiful, with a range of planting opportunities and low-maintenance features.

Set within the foothills of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, Ingleton is a thriving village surrounded by some of the most spectacular scenery in the North of England. Known for its famous Waterfalls Trail and stunning limestone landscapes, the area is a haven for walkers, cyclists, and outdoor enthusiasts.

Ingleton offers a warm and welcoming community atmosphere, with a selection of independent shops, cosy cafes, traditional pubs, and local amenities including a primary school, doctors' surgery, and community centre. A thought from the owners..."We have enjoyed this beautiful cottage and spectacular views that are available from the garden and rear of the property. We have spent many a sunny afternoon in the garden, especially during the summer, listening to the birds as well as the sheep from the neighbouring field. There is always life in the village with the many hikers and hill walkers it brings. However, there are very few commercial trappings and Ingleton stays relatively peaceful even during holiday season. Ingleton sits perfectly on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales and within easy reach of the Lakes."
