A private lane leads to the property, which sits within its own grounds, including an orchard with fruit trees, grazing areas, expansive lawns, and ample off road parking.

Upon entering the main house, you are welcomed into a traditional country kitchen, thoughtfully designed with a range of wall and base units, complementary worktops, and a one and a half stainless steel sink with drainer. The kitchen also features an oil-fired Aga, electric oven with four-ring gas hob and extractor, as well as an integrated dishwasher and built in undercounter fridge. There is plenty of space for a family dining table, making this a true heart-of-the-home.

From the kitchen, a door leads to a practical utility room with further base units, sink, and space for a fridge/freezer, washing machine, and dryer. A useful W.C. with pedestal sink, large walk in pantry with shelving, and external access complete this functional area.

Steps from the kitchen lead to the dining room, which features exposed beams, a wood-burning stove, front-facing windows, and a handy under-stairs cupboard. From here, stairs rise to the first floor. A door connects the dining room to the cosy living room, which also features exposed beams, a second wood-burning stove, dual aspect windows, and access to the garden. Completing the ground floor is a bright and airy oak framed sunroom with doors opening onto the garden, providing the perfect spot to soak in the panoramic views.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys dual aspect windows and a walk-in wardrobe. Bedroom two features traditional beams and dual aspect windows, while bedroom three, though smaller, still comfortably accommodates a double bed. The family bathroom is modern and stylish, with a walk-in shower featuring a waterfall and handheld attachment, W.C., pedestal sink, part-tiled walls, and an airing cupboard.

The separate annex, Fellside, provides further flexible accommodation. Currently configured as a one bedroom property with dressing room, there is scope to divide it into two bedrooms if desired. The ground floor comprises a well-equipped kitchen/dining room with wall and base units, worktops, a sink, Electrolux oven and microwave, induction hob and space for additional appliances. The ground floor bathroom includes a corner shower, W.C., and pedestal sink. Upstairs, the living/dining room features a vaulted ceiling and benefits from triple aspect windows and door to the garden, complete with a feature wood burning stove.
