Stable Cottage is a beautifully presented, stone faced cottage tucked away on Finkle Street, just a short distance from the centre of Sedbergh Market Town. Formerly an architect's office, the cottage was converted in the 1980s and has since been successfully used as a holiday let, offering a blend of traditional charm and modern comfort, ideal for investors or first time buyers.

Sedbergh is nestled on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales National Park, Sedbergh is a charming market town known for its stunning scenery, historic architecture, and welcoming community. The town offers a range of local amenities, including independent shops, cosy cafés, traditional pubs, and a weekly market. Families will appreciate the excellent local schools, including the renowned Sedbergh School, while outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy easy access to beautiful walking and cycling routes across the surrounding hills and countryside.

The accommodation comprises an open plan kitchen/living/dining area to the ground floor with feature beams and sash windows. The kitchen is fitted with wall and base units, worktops, a stainless steel sink, gas hob, electric oven, and space for a fridge freezer.

On the first floor, the double bedroom offers views of the church beyond and includes a useful storage cupboard. The first floor also features a light and bright bathroom comprising a bath with shower over, W.C. and vanity sink unit.

Retaining some original features, this low maintenance property would make an ideal investment, holiday let, or first home. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm and potential of this delightful cottage.
