This larger than typical period terraced home is situated very close to Russell Park and requires complete refurbishment throughout. Available with no upward chain, the accommodation provides three separate reception rooms, a kitchen, three bedrooms and a first floor bathroom. There are also two storage cupboards to the rear of the ground floor, both internal and external. Heating is by gas to radiators and further features include some sash windows and period fireplaces. Outside, there is a shared side passageway leading to a walled rear garden which enjoys a sunny west facing aspect.

The immediate Castle Road area has a choice of cafes, coffee shops and delis alongside other specialist shops such as a butchers, bakery and convenience stores. Both Russell Park and The Embankment are close by as well as sports facilities including Riverside Tennis Club and Bedford Rugby Club 'The Blues'. Bedford town centre is a short walk away and provides a wider choice of shops, bars and restaurants as well as easy access into London by rail. EER: TBC
