This period end of terrace home occupies a popular position on the edge of the 'Castle Quarter' and is available with no upward chain. Offering unusually spacious rooms, the accommodation provides separate, self-contained, sitting and dining room as well as a kitchen/breakfast room with modern kitchen units, plenty of space for a dining table and bi-fold doors opening to the rear garden. There is also a useful ground floor cloakroom/utility room. The first floor has two very large double bedrooms, both extending across the side passageway, a third small bedroom/study and a spacious bathroom with period style suite including a free standing bath and separate walk-in shower. There is a period feel throughout the property with fireplaces to most of the principle rooms (including a solid fuel burner in the living room), stripped wood floors and doors as well as sash window. There is also gas to radiator heating. Outside, there is a walled rear garden with both lawn and patio areas, wider than typical with a private side passageway.

The Castle Road area provides a growing number of cafes, coffee shops and restaurants as well as specialist shops such as a butchers, bakery and home improvements stores. Russell Park is a short walk away, as is the Embankment and Bedford town centre, which has a wider choice of shops as well as fast links into London St Pancras by rail. The area is also home to the outstanding-rated Castle Newnham Primary School. EER: D
