Occupying a central town location adjoining the river, this individual three storey townhouse offers deceptive and adaptable accommodation. The first floor living area has window aspects on three sides with much natural light flooding the space and a small balcony which takes advantage of the delightful river aspect. The well equipped kitchen/dining area also has doors opening to a rear Juliet balcony. On the ground floor is a study or fourth bedroom together with a utility room, cloakroom and integral single garage. There are three second floor bedrooms - the master having an enlarged en-suite shower room - together with a family bathroom. There is gas radiator heating and uPVC double glazing throughout. Conveniently located for the town's amenities, a range of riverside restaurants, pubs and multiplex cinema are on the doorstep. For the commuter, the rail station is within a few minutes walk.

Council Tax Band: E EPC Rating: C

We understand that the property is held on a 125 year lease which commenced on 1st January 1990. The current Ground Rent is £291pa; the current annual Service Charge is £1,491. A particular feature of the property is the window aspects on three sides of the building which bring much natural light into the accommodation. In addition to the garage is a further, generous sized parking space in close proximity.
