This smart top floor apartment lies on the doorstep of the town's amenities and within a few minutes walk of the picturesque Embankment. Converted to a strong specification, the accommodation features a generous sized double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and matching bedroom furniture, a shower room and a spacious living room and kitchen which features a fitted microwave and oven, ceramic hob and extractor hood. There is also an integrated washing machine, slimline dishwasher and fridge. There are light tubes in the hall and shower room which bring natural sunlight into the spaces. There is also underfloor heating with digital room thermostats. A parking space lies to the rear secured by remote controlled gates and there is an entry phone system to the building.

Ideal as a first purchase or investment opportunity, the property is available with no upward chain. Conveniently situated for the town's amenities, a range of pubs and restaurants are within easy walking distance. For the commuter, the train station is within 15 minutes walk where there is a fast rail link into London's St Pancras. TENURE: Leasehold - We understand that the property is held on a 125 year lease which commenced in June 2016. The current annual service charge amounts £1,400 and ground rent £200 and the flat owners have recently been granted the right to manage the building. EER: F
