Ufton Crescent is a popular residential road leading directly from Radbourne Road in Shirley. Originally built in the late 1950's, these well proportioned house occupy good sized plots with generous space to both the front and rear.

The property is approximately one mile from the main A34 Stratford in the town centre of Shirley, where one will find excellent shopping facilities, ranging from small speciality and convenience stores to a choice of major supermarkets and Superstores on the Retail Park. Frequent bus services operate along the Stratford Road into the City of Birmingham and beyond and into the town centre of Solihull, and there is a thriving business community together with a wide choice of restaurants, hostelrys, and a community centre.

Nearby is the town centre of Solihull which also offers excellent shopping facilities with the new Touchwood Development, and also has a thriving business community, and a local bus service operates within nearby Solihull Road which will take you to the town centre. Within the town centre of Solihull is the Railway Station, Tudor Grange Leisure Centre with indoor tennis and swimming facilities, Norman Green Athletics Centre and the Sixth Form Colleges serving the area, together with St Peter's School and St Augustine's Roman Catholic Junior and Infant Schools, and we are advised that the property falls within the Tudor Grange catchment, although all education facilities are subject to confirmation from the Education Department.

An excellent location therefore for this extended traditional semi detached house which sits back back from the road behind a front block edged tarmac driveway which leads to a UPVC double glazed double door opening to the
