This well presented modern mews house is situated in a very pleasant courtyard position on this popular development built on the old Sharmans Cross Secondary School site just off Solihull Road.

Originally constructed by Wimpey Homes, this charming property is ideally positioned to take advantage of the amenities with both Shirley and Solihull. Regular bus services operate passing the end of the road which will take you into the centre of Solihull or into Shirley and on into the city centre of Birmingham and its outlying suburbs. There is a walk way onto Ralph Road from the cul-de-sac and likewise a walkway from Ralph Road into the centre of Shirley.

Along the A34 Stratford Road one will find an excellent choice of shopping facilities, ranging from small speciality and convenience stores to a choice of major supermarkets and Superstores on the nearby Retail Park. There is also a wide choice of restaurants and hostelrys on the Stratford Road, Community Centre and access to Shirley Park, a pleasant area of public open space. There is a thriving business community along the Stratford Road, which extends up onto the Cranmore, Widney & Monkspath Business Parks, and through here to the Provident and Blythe Valley Business Parks, which straddle the junction of the M42 motorway, a journey down which will bring you to the National Exhibition Centre and Birmingham International Airport and Railway Station.

Alternatively, one could choose to shop in the town centre of Solihull, which is approximately 2 miles distant, and here one will find comprehensive shopping facilities with departmental stores and the Touchwood Development with recreational facilities and shops.

Situated in this small block paved courtyard, a pathway is flanked by a small walled foregarden. A UPVC double glazed front door opens directly to the
