Offers Over £425,000

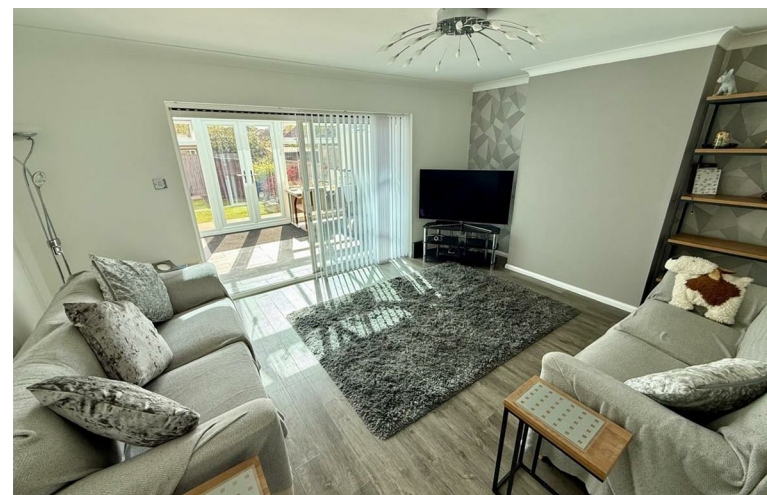

Description

This extended and much improved Dares built 1960's semi-detached house is situated in this small cul-de-sac off Haslucks Green Road, opposite Shirley Railway Station. Being conveniently located for the amenities of central Shirley with easy pedestrian access to Haslucks Green Junior School which is off Haslucks Green Road. Burman Infant School can be found in nearby Velsheda Road, which leads from Haslucks Green Road and we are advised that the property currently falls into Light Hall School catchment area, subject to confirmation from the Education Department.

There are local shops a short distance away in Haslucks Green Road, and directly opposite the close is Shirley Station from where commuter services operate to Birmingham and Stratford upon Avon. Local bus services operate along Haslucks Green Road and frequent bus services operate along the A34 providing access to Birmingham and surrounding areas.

Along the A34 in the town centre there is a wide choice of shops ranging from speciality stores to a choice of supermarkets and these are augmented by the superstores on the retail park in Marshall Lake Road.

A most convenient location therefore for this generous family home that really does need to be viewed to be appreciated and has been lovingly maintained by the current owners and finished with quality fittings throughout and a fresh 'neutral' palette with all of the interior decorations. The house benefits from a very large block paved front garden, a pleasant and private rear garden and has interior features such as an extended modern kitchen, 'Amtico' flooring to the ground floor, the provision of a good sized ground floor shower room and a large family bathroom with separate shower.
