We have pleasure in offering to the market this handsome Georgian double fronted period residence located close to the heart of this charming village positioned within walking distance of local amenities but also within easy reach of the well served market town of Bingham.

Elm House is a delightful traditional home offering a wealth of charm and character with high ceilings, deep skirtings and architrave and attractive period features, live fireplace to the sitting room and feature cast iron fireplaces to the bedrooms; replacement double glazed sash windows to the front elevation and attractive walk in bay windows to the main receptions.

The property extends to approximately 1,300sq. ft. and comprises an initial entrance hall looking up to an attractive split level galleried landing and stripped pine doors leading to two main reception rooms with dual aspect sitting room with attractive bay window to the front and French doors into the garden at the rear. The separate formal dining room again offers a dual aspect with feature fireplace and attractive walk in bay window. The kitchen is situated to the rear of the property with windows to two elevations and access out through a canopied rear entrance into the garden. The first floor has an impressive split level landing, three bedrooms, two particularly generous doubles to the front elevation with the master benefitting from integrated wardrobes, both with period fireplaces. The three bedrooms are serviced by a modern but traditional style bathroom.

As well as the accommodation on offer the property occupies a pleasant corner plot set back behind a railing frontage with established gardens to the side and rear and off road parking.

Overall viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.

ASLOCKTON

Aslockton is well equipped with amenities including a public house, well regarded primary school and catchment area for Toothill School, new shop The Larder, hourly bus services and railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham, from Grantham high speed trains to London in just over an hour.
