This is an attractive example of a Victorian, double fronted, unique detached home offering an excellent level of accommodation having been sympathetically extended and reconfigured over the years, providing in excess of 2,200sq.ft. of floor space, excluding its integral tandem length garage.

The property offers a wealth of character and features with high coved ceilings, deep skirtings and architraves, period style fireplaces, replacement double glazed sash windows and stripped pine doors. This is combined with the elements of modern living having contemporary kitchen and bathrooms and gas central heating.

The property offers a great deal of versatility in its layout and would probably suit growing families especially making use of the local school, boasting four main reception areas including the addition of a substantial conservatory to the side, each room offering its own individuality with a dual aspects and interesting features. In addition these are complemented by a generous open plan living/dining kitchen, again ideal for entertaining and families, also benefitting from a dual aspect and fitted with a generous range of contemporary units and integrated appliances with useful utility room and ground floor cloak room leading off.

To the first floor are four double bedrooms, the master bedroom being particularly impressive, offering an excellent level of floor area having attractive high, part pitched ceiling, inset skylights and ensuite facilities off, and separate tastefully appointed family bathroom.

As well as the accommodation the property occupies a delightful, established plot tucked away close to the entrance to this small no through lane, having ample off road parking and garaging and beautifully established gardens well stocked with an abundance of trees and shrubs running to three sides.

Overall viewing comes highly recommended to appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.

ASLOCKTON

Aslockton is well equipped with amenities including a public house, well regarded primary school and catchment area for Toothill School as well as the Grantham Grammar Schools. There is a new shop The Larder - a farm fresh shop with household sundries and deli, hourly bus services and railway station with links to Nottingham and Grantham, from Grantham high speed trains to London in just over an hour. There is also a church and village hall, excellent sports facilities with cricket and football pitches and all weather tennis courts.
